IRENE MARCHES TO OLYMPICS

Kelowna's adopted daughter, Irene MacDonald (arrowed) who placed sixth in the three-metre diving championships at the Rome Olympics today, is seen here marching with the rest of the Canadian delegation to the games. Miss MacDonald lost

Irene MacDonald Places Sixth In Olympic Diving

By CHARLES E. GIORDANO (Courier Sports Editor)

A cloud of disappointment hovered over the city today when it was learned Irene MacDonald, Kelowna's adopted daughter, placed sixth in the women's springboard diving championships at the Rome Olympics.

Miss MacDonald, who won a third-place bronze medal in 1956, placed third in the semi-finals earlier today. (See story page 8).

According to a Canadian Press dispatch, Miss MacDonald, who is under the able coaching of Kelowna's Dr. George Athans, lost points in her final dives.

Ingrid Kramer of Dresden in East Germany, topped the championship, breaking the United States' 40-year supremacy in the competition. She amassed a total of 156.81 points.

The U.S. previously had won the event eight times in eight attempts.

Mrs. Paula Jean Pope of the U.S. made a strong comeback to finish second behind the German girl with 141.24 points.

Elizabeth Ferris of Britain was third with 139.09 and Patsy Willard of the United States fourth with 137.8 points.

Miss Kramer, a shapely 17-year-old blonde made a "magnificent" final dive to the applause of a crowd of about 5,000 to win her Olympic gold medal.

Russia's Niel Krutova was fifth in 136.11, followed by Miss MacDonald, who scored 134.69 points. Ann Long of Britain was seventh with 129.63, and Phe du Pon of the Netherlands eighth with 123.55.

COSTLY DIVE
Miss MacDonald's chances disappeared when she made her first dive in the afternoon final. She mistimed her two-and-a-half backward somersault and hit the water with her knees. The poor dive was costly on points, dropping her to ninth place from third at that stage.

Climbing from the pool after her last dive, she hurried off.

"That's it," she said with a sob. She dressed and left the stadium immediately.

The men's springboard competition got under way today and Ernie Meissner of Vancouver placed eighth on points and easily qualified for the semi-final.

Sam Hall and Gary Tobian of the U.S. were one-two among the qualifiers, with Juan Botilla of Mexico third.

A speedy quartet of American swimmers set the first world record of the 17th Olympic games.

The American swimmers were timed at 4:08.2 in the men's 400-metre medley relay, with Canada's team placing second in the same heat to qualify easily for the final next Thursday.

Canada had the third-best time of the eight countries in the final. Canada's time was 4:15.3. Australian team, winner in the first heat, was clocked in 4:14.8.

Other results today are:
Basketball — Yugoslavia 62, France 61; Bulgaria 75, Czechoslovakia 69.
Field Hockey — Belgium 4, Switzerland 2.
Water Polo — Russia 7, Argentina 4; Yugoslavia 7, South Africa 1.

CANADIANS WOUNDED IN CLASH WITH CONGOLESE

OTTAWA (CP) — Some Canadians were injured in a clash between United Nations and Congolese troops today in the Congo, it was reported here.

An external affairs source said he had been informed that the skirmish took place after the plane in which the Canadians were flying to the Congo put down at Stanleyville airport. They were attacked by Congolese troops at the airport, the source said. It was not clear whether the attack took place while the Canadians were still inside the plane, or were coming out, or after they had disembarked.

The source said he could neither confirm nor deny a report that two Canadians were wounded when Congolese troops attacked United Nations headquarters in Stanleyville. According to his report a Swede serving with the UN also was injured.

Kalonji Appeals For Help In Rebellious Loyal Troops

ELISABETHVILLE (Reuters) — The self-styled president of the secessionist "mining state," Albert Kalonji, today appealed for volunteers to help repel central government troops who have seized his capital of Bakwanga.

He said that 300 troops dispatched by Premier Patrice Lumumba to Lulabourg in Kasai province had been aided by Tunisian troops of the United Nations to overrun his territory in the southeast section of the province.

He claimed they were led by three Czechoslovak officers "smuggled in under cover of the UN operation."

Kalonji, now virtually in exile here, said the Tunisians had disarmed his own army of about 800 men and stopped them from "going into the attack."

LUMUMBA "AGGRESSION"
Kalonji issued an appeal for "volunteers," either black or white, to help him repel the "aggression" of the Lumumba troops.

Adenauer Hopeful Of Smoothing Army Upset

By GERALD LONG BONN (Reuters) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today set off on a three-week vacation in Italy, hopeful that he had allayed fears that West Germany's new armed forces are attempting to meddle in politics.

The chancellor summoned Defence Minister Franz Josef Strauss back from vacation after a pamphlet issued to West German troops last week said the armed forces demanded nuclear weapons.

A government statement said that Adenauer and Strauss, at a meeting Friday, had reached full agreement on the pamphlet in which Strauss said the word "demands" was used in the military sense of meaning "needs" rather than being a demand upon the government for such weapons.

DIFFERENT MEANING
Strauss said Friday night that the 84-year-old chancellor had originally taken the pamphlet to mean "demands" in the political sense.

Issuance of the pamphlet touched off angry protests by opposition Social Democrat party which regarded it as the opening step of a move by the general staff to interfere in politics as it did before the Second World War.

Signified by Vice-Admiral Friedrich Ruge, acting inspector-general of West German armed forces, it declared that West German ground forces in the NATO "shield" should be equipped with nuclear weapons like other Atlantic pact troops.

'Mistake' Ends In Woundings

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Two policemen and a pair of armored car guards, each thinking the others were bandits, shot it out Friday night. Two of the men were wounded.

"It was the worst mistake in the world," said sheriff Harlon Wright.

Deputy sheriff Windle Coy Ray, 33, and James Hutcherson, 45, a supervisor for the armored car firm, were in fair condition at hospital.

Wright said Ray and another deputy were part of a three-car stakeout at a supermarket when receiving word the armored car would be robbed.

Hutcherson and another guard, acting on a similar tip, had been trailing the armored car.

Neither the policemen nor the armored car officers recognized each other.

The gunfight started when the deputies, wearing civilian clothes, halted the guard's car. "Everybody was just keyed up," Hutcherson said from his hospital bed.

Bomb Blast Shakes Red Envoy's Hotel

HAVANA (AP) — A bomb exploded early today in Havana's Vedado district, one block from the former Hilton Hotel where Soviet Ambassador Leonid Brezhnev is staying. Police said no one was injured.

HAMPSTEAD NOT WITH BEATNIKS

LONDON (AP) — Police dogs were used Friday night to break up a mob of 1,000 living, beer-stained beatniks who chose a quiet street in the genteel suburb of Hampstead for a ball.

The binge put the beatnik sessions of Chelsea in the shade. Three bands and a television set blared through the haze of a dingy clubroom as the party built up to its climax: a snake-eating contest.

The bizarre, pulsating throng was the cream of London's great unwashed, but the gentleness of Hampstead were not impressed.

"The world seems to have gone absolutely mad," said Mrs. Grace Bloom, who lives in a nearby house. "No one can sleep around here."

"We claim to have the dirtiest and most unwashed mob of beatniks in London here tonight," boasted David Joseph, 23-year-old assistant manager of the beatnik club that sent out the invitations.

He described the orders as an effort to suppress activity of organized labor in support of the CCF and added:

"It is significant to note that MacMillan, Blodel and Powell River were awarded one of the largest forest management licenses ever issued in B.C. just three days before the election."

"Are they now partially paying back Social Credit? Is this all they are doing for Social Credit?"

Mr. Clyne said it was true that "we will not allow shop stewards or others to bring pressure to bear upon our employees in working hours to contribute to political party funds and this applies to all political parties."

But he said the reference to the company's licence was an innuendo, "completely unworthy of Mr. Coldwell."

"Mr. Coldwell must know that there is no basis for his miserable insinuations and I say to him that this company will welcome any investigation by anyone in regard to any tree farm licence issued to it."

Premier Bennett, back in Victoria after a northern election tour, addressed a noisy, overflow audience of 1,500 in a Victoria theatre.

"This government will never be the representative of big business or big labor but of the ordinary people of B.C.," he declared in the face of heckling opponents of the Peace River and PNIT projects of Swedish John. Mr. Finlayson remained at Prince George where he

Pike Pole And Hat Found Floating

By BOBBI STAHL

ENDERBY — John Mikalishen was drowned in a mill pond yesterday afternoon. The Grindrod farmer and mill worker was working at Riverside Sawmill when the accident occurred. He is the father of seven young children.

Mr. Mikalishen, who was in his early 30's, had been driving the fork lift at the mill earlier in the afternoon and had climbed down from the machine to assist Robert Settel, a fellow worker, to feed logs into the jack ladder.

A short time later, at about 3:30 p.m., Settel, who had his back turned while feeding the logs, noticed Mikalishen had disappeared. Upon investigating he found his pike pole and hat floating in the water.

The mill crew was notified at once and Mikalishen's body was brought up from the bottom of the pond. He had been in the water approximately 20 minutes before he was brought to the surface.

Artificial respiration was given at once by Jack Dugdale, Val Schulte and Ed Smith, until the ambulance and Dr. A. Dixon arrived. Corporal William Benton of Enderby was also notified and appeared at the scene of the accident.

Mr. Mikalishen has been a resident of Grindrod for a number of years where his wife and family reside. He had been employed at the Riverside Sawmills five miles east of Enderby for about one month. Local RCMP report an inquest will be held.

The men stated that due to usual noise in the mill it was impossible to hear or notice any sign of a mishap. The only indication was the appearance of the victim's hat, pike pole and cigarette papers floating on the water.

Had it not been for that, the accident would have been unnoticed for a greater length of time.

Sabotage Delays British Warship

PORTSMOUTH, England (Reuters) — The sailing of the British destroyer Dainty, 3,500 tons, from here was delayed Friday night by what appeared to be sabotage.

Shortly before the ship was due to leave for Iceland for two weeks patrol duty, the steering gear was found to be damaged.

Finlayson Calls For $200m Highway Program In B.C.

FORT ST. JOHN (CP) — A $200,000,000 highway program to boost B.C.'s economy is proposed by provincial Conservative leader Deane Finlayson.

He said here today that a Conservative government would complete arterial routes in the province over a four-year program.

He announced the plan to a committee of citizens who welcomed him on a brief election campaign visit.

Mr. Finlayson said he would borrow funds on a short-term basis in order to aid employment and provide a shot-in-the-arm to business. He said he would pay the loan off in five years and cut back on other highway spending if necessary to pay for the proposed network of highways.

The Conservative leader said he would complete Highway 16 from Prince Rupert to the Alberta border, would complete the Hard Highway and bring it up to standard throughout its length, would complete the Southern Trans-provincial Highway and provide a connection between north and south through a new North Thompson link.

Mr. Finlayson said the Social Credit government highway program is not moving fast enough and that an over-all plan of highway extension is required.

Jobless Excuse 'Shocking Effort'

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario Federation of Labor criticized Ontario newspapers Friday for what is called a shocking effort to excuse the federal government from responsibility for unemployment.

Douglas Hamilton, federation secretary-treasurer, said newspapers that dismissed last winter's unemployment as a seasonal phenomenon are attributing unemployment to workers who would rather draw unemployment insurance than work.

He said these are "simple excuses to protect the government" and the real reason is that there aren't sufficient jobs. The federation predicted unemployment of depression proportions unless the government acts now.

Khrushchev May Come Under Fire For Rocket Threat

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Western hemisphere foreign ministers today hammered out a draft resolution which would condemn Nikita Khrushchev's threat to hit the United States with rockets if Cuba is attacked.

But the proposed resolution avoided pointing an accusing finger at Fidel Castro's revolutionary government for his swing toward the Communist camp.

The draft was drawn up by a working committee of ministers after a grueling four-hour session that lasted until 2 a.m.

The proposal was to be announced later today before a 10-nation committee named by the Organization of American States to prepare a final resolution on subversive activities in the Western hemisphere.

Later it will go to the full council of ministers meeting here. A widely-divided vote may result if the draft fails to meet Cuba's objections.

Other points approved by the working group calls on the ministers to:

1. Reject any reference to intervention in affairs of the Western hemisphere;
2. Reaffirm the principle of non-intervention;
3. Reaffirm the right of free aggression.

determination for peoples to develop their countries as they choose;

4. Declare that the inter-American system rejects any form of totalitarianism;

5. Notes that all American states are obliged to seek peaceful settlement of disputes;

6. Reaffirm faith in the regional system.

The committee of 10 foreign ministers was named in hope of healing the breach between adherents of a hard policy espoused by the United States and those who want a milder resolution.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa has made a direct effort to capitalize on the sympathy existing in many Latin American nations for the Cuban revolution itself.

Roa has said that the revolution was and is entirely a home-bred movement. He declared U.S. charges that the Castro regime is becoming a captive of the Communists.

Roa has accused the United States of aggression against his government.

He challenged the claim and suggested the conference appoint a fact-finding commission to look into allegations of U.S. aggression.

Farewell Gift For Constable

ENDERBY (Correspondent) — Enderby Boy Scout Troup and Ted Stahl who will now be the Scout leader presented Constable Stewart Robertson Langdon with a hatchet on Thursday evening as a farewell present.

Constable Langdon was born in Grande Prairie Alberta and also received his education there. His basic training was received in Regina and Ottawa.

Constable Langdon came here about four years ago from Nanaimo and will be returning there this weekend.

ALGERS (AP) — French scientists are preparing an underground test explosion of an atomic bomb in the Sahara region in mid-October, informed sources said today. This would be the third French atomic test explosion.

Mali Leader Seeks UN Aid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A request came Friday from Modibo Keita, premier of the Mali Federation, for aid in preventing the threatened split in the new African country.

Keita, who also is premier of the republic of Sudan, a territory of the federation, called for a meeting of the Security Council and for UN troops. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld took no action on the request except to circulate it among members of the 11-nation council.

Diplomats were generally cool toward bringing the dispute to the council. They took the position privately that this was purely a domestic political controversy and not a proper issue for UN action.

Hammarskjöld also received a communication from the government of Senegal, the other part of the federation, applying for the admission of Senegal as a UN member. The secretary-general is circulating this letter also.

STREETS COLLAPSE

Parisians Walking Warily

PARIS (Reuters) — Parisians stepped lightly along the streets of Paris today in case another road would collapse.

Newspapers reminded the population that one-tenth of Paris is built over old quarries from which stone and gypsum were dug to build part of the city.

Every once in a while, a street, together with sidewalks on both sides, collapses into an empty quarry. The latest one opened up in east Paris this week, revealing a 33-foot-deep cavern.

A truck driver and his vehicle vanished last December as he was driving along a Paris street. Diggers removed tons of earth before his body was recovered a month later.

Last month, a Paris factory was hastily evacuated when the road caved in. A 98-foot pit was found below the roadway.

One official commented: "Traffic is bad enough in Paris without having roads disappear."

About the only part of the city on solid foundation is the centre of old Paris where the Louvre, Bank of France and many government buildings are located.

Lad Hoodwinks Kelownians Masquerading as a Woman

By AL CAMPBELL
Daily Courier Staff Writer

RCMP here have now completed the file on one of the most bizarre criminal cases ever experienced in Kelowna.

Last week in Victoria, police arrested a 14-year-old boy, who allegedly successfully masqueraded as a woman "with a voluptuous figure and passed several worthless cheques.

He is said to have used a "sympathy angle" — a young woman in distress, several miles from home with no money. It appears some Kelowna merchants and a chartered bank of hoodwinked even more completely by the boy, an escapee from a Saskatchewan industrial school. He, dressed as a "she" cashed a total of four cheques in the Orchard City, realizing $135 for his efforts.

But the lad added insult to injury here. A Kelowna jeweler pierced the boy's ears, and sold him a pair of earrings to set off his femininity. He even visited a Kelowna hairdresser, who appropriately crowned him with a "little-boy" type hair-do.

The young offender then visited the local merchants and the bank, with a story "she" had been visiting the Regatta and had run short of funds to return home. He was described as "darn cute" by a businessman whom he had rused. The youth was arrested when he checked into a Victoria hotel with a woman's baggage he had stolen earlier in the day. "She" has now been returned to the boy's industrial school.

"Ogopogo Route" Travellers To Be Feted At Peachland

More than 130 people in 40 ordinary passenger automobiles will set out for Princeton and travel over the "Ogopogo Route" to Peachland.

On their arrival, which is estimated for 12:30 p.m., a scroll will be presented to George Schluter, president of the Princeton Board of Trade, and all the travellers will receive boxes of fruit and juices.

Reeve C. O. Whinton, one of the original boosters of the direct route between the two communities, will officiate at the welcoming ceremonies in Peachland, and escort the party to Kelowna.

The direct route over logging roads, between Princeton and Peachland cuts off more than 45 miles from the distance of the present highway through Penticton.

When the east-west caravan of 37 cars travelled over its course, June 26, to demonstrate the feasibility of the route to stock automobiles, it came in for a lot of attention from Penticton Jaycees, who resent the efforts to secure development of the route as an attempt to by-pass their city.

Kelowna Jaycees recently posted directional signs throughout the length of the route, and these have since been removed by some mischief makers. All possible precautions are being taken to counter interference Sunday.

CCF Candidate Here Well-Known In District

LAKEVIEW HEIGHTS — Lakeview Heights residents will have a special interest in the CCF candidate for the South Okanagan in the Sept. 12 provincial election, Walter Ratzlaff, for the last three years VLA resident.

Mr. Ratzlaff came from a farming family of 11, his parents being homesteaders in Saskatchewan. He took part of his teaching training in Saskatoon, was in the RCAF from 1941-1946 and after the war obtained his arts degree at UBC.

He has taught at East Kelowna school, the junior high in Kelowna and George Pringle High in Westbank. He met his wife, Marjorie, at a United Church Mission Hospital at the coast where she was nursing, having taken her training at Kamloops. They were married in Kelowna in 1943 and they have five children, Lisa, Dorothy, Toby, Jean and Flora.

The CCF party first aroused his interest during the depression, following the development of the wheat pools and farm co-operatives.

He says the parties "humanitarian approach" to politics particularly appeals to him. The family home, though not yet completed was built almost entirely by Mr. Ratzlaff and has a splendid view of the lake.

Development of a small holding does not leave much time for hobbies but previously Mr. Ratzlaff enjoyed playing the violin, the saxophone and golf. The family is well-known for its active part in Community affairs.

Motorcade To Vernon

Plans are being finalized here to have a cavalcade travel from Kelowna to Vernon Tuesday to hear Saskatchewan premier T. C. Douglas speak.

Other motorcades are being formed in Penticton, Salmon Arm, Revelstoke and Kamloops to attend the meeting, scheduled for 8:30 p.m. in the Vernon Civic Arena.

On the platform with Premier Douglas will be: Isobel Rothery, CCF candidate for North Okanagan; Walter Ratzlaff, South Okanagan; Tiny Hobbs, Revelstoke and Ken Haines, Salmon Arm.

O. L. Jones, provincial CCF president will chair the meeting. The Cavalcade from Kelowna will leave the arena parking lot at 7 p.m.

Latin America Is Popular With Court "Customers"

Latin America bids to become the Mecca of certain defendants in police court here.

Paul Obala had the (vain) support of two friends Friday when he was fined $50 with costs for taking liquor into a restaurant and $20 with costs for being intoxicated in a public place.

One of his friends, identifying himself as Jean Versailles from South America, told the court the trio was passing through Kelowna seeking work, and he would personally assume responsibility for payment of the fines, if a little time were allowed.

The magistrate explained it was obligatory the $50 and costs for the liquor offence be settled "forthwith" or Obala must go to jail for 30 days in default.

With the defendant and a third party, offered an immediate payment of "about $11.

When told this was not legally acceptable, he appealed to the magistrate to release his friend anyway.

He said it was most awkward this should happen at the present time, that he was interested in Obala's future, intended to take him back with him to South America, and had in fact already paid their passages there.

The defendant was sentenced to 35 days in default of payment of the two fines. At an earlier trial a transient sentenced to 14 days in default of payment of a fine for trespassing on railway property said to the magistrate: "Don't send me to jail — why don't you send me to Cuba? Castro finds work for the unemployed!"

Radar Unit Catches 79

The RCMP mobile radar unit appears to be paying off in the Kelowna area.

At last count, 79 alleged offenders have been apprehended by the two-man team operating in the district.

The electronic machine traps tourist and resident alike, and the "haul" so far includes Progressive Conservative Leader Deane Finlayson's touring campaign car. A Kelowna clergyman is also awaiting trial on a speeding charge after being clocked.

The team, operating from an unmarked "ghost car" and interceptor usually apprehends about 100 suspects.

Usually they are found guilty.

Fall Fair Plans For Westbank Now Complete

WESTBANK — Arrangements are now complete for the Westbank Fall Fair to be held in the Community Hall here, on Friday Sept. 2.

Entry lists must be in the hands of the fair board at Robin's Store Sept. 1, or mailed to the fair secretary, Mrs. J. H. Blackley. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson are donating a new cup for the highest aggregate points in the flower section. Mr. N. H. Lightly having won the previous cup for three consecutive years is entitled to keep same.

There are also the following cups to be competed for: Silver Cup, donated by the Community Club for annual competition of highest aggregate points, in the fresh fruit section; Silver Cup for Annual Competition, donated by A. H. Davidson for collection of annuals.

Silver Cup donated by Women's Institute for annual competition for highest aggregate points in home economics and women's work.

The women's work includes a new class this year "any article — maker over 70 years."

Junior Regatta Slated Sunday At Aquatic

The annual Kelowna Junior Regatta, last event held each year in Ogopogo pool, commences Sunday at 10 o'clock.

Sponsored by the Ogopogo swim club, the Junior Regatta draws competitors, eight to seventeen years, from all over the interior.

Elimination heats begin at 10 o'clock with diving starting at 11 a.m.

The Kelowna Water Ski Club will give a thrilling and for them chilling, one-hour display out in the open water.

The Lady-of-the-Lake, Valerie Denton and her princesses will be present to donate trophies to the lucky winners.

"It is hoped that a good crowd will be present for this, the last event of the year," said Aquatic manager Jack Brown.

And bring your blankets.

KINSMEN PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

Putting the final touches to the monumental task of finding accommodation for more than 1,000 Kinsmen and Kinettes are Kelowna Kinsmen left to right: Terry Senfle, Charles Bruce, Andy Sperle and Lawrence Wall. These hard working members have managed to put the majority of visiting delegates in motels and hotels within five miles of downtown Kelowna.

Kinsmen and Kinettes from all across Canada will be converging on Kelowna Sept. 8, 9 and 10 to attend the Kinsmen National Appleland Convention, the farthest delegate from the East being from Cornerbrook, Newfoundland. After two-and-a-half years of work the host club, the Kelowna Kin, are seeing all their plans finalizing into the largest district or National Kinsmen Convention ever held in Canada and the largest convention ever held in the interior of B.C. An all Canadian young man's organization the association of Kinsmen Clubs is affiliated with the World Council of Young Men's Service Clubs who are sending delegates to Kelowna from Sweden, England, Australia and the United States.

Travel 97 Week Promotion Will Precede Motorcade

Highway travelers are being urged to take advantage of this year's extended tourist season by travelling on US-BC Highway 97, the Okanagan Cariboo Trail, during "Travel 97 Week," August 26 to September 5.

Highway 97 promoters point out that not only does this great highway shorten the trip to Alaska by as much as 1000 miles, it also provides the motorist with a wide diversity of scenery, historic attractions and recreation along the way. Highway 97, which follows the trail of the early-day fur and gold seekers, is the shortest direct water-level route up the great valley between the Cascades and Rocky Mountains.

Highway 97 itself is in excellent condition, with many improvements having been made recently and paving practically completed to Dawson Creek, which is "Mile 0" on the Alaska Highway. Hotels and motels, along the highway. Maps, brochures and complete up-to-date facilities information on local attractions and accommodations are to be found at convenient intervals.

"Travel 97 Week" will herald the approach of the long-awaited Cariboo 97, the organized hotels, motels, restaurants and motorcade which will start in Bend, Oregon, on September 4 and reach Dawson Creek, the terminal point, on Friday, Sept. 9. The Cariboo is sponsored by the Okanagan Cariboo Trail Association. It will visit many of the important cities along the way, bared highway in the world and picking up new members at all scheduled stops. The Washington State Patrol will give the Cariboo official escort service while it is in the state and the RCMP will give similar V.I.P. treatment to Cariboo 97 members in British Columbia.

"Travel 97 Week" will be designated by official proclamation, truly a trip to be taken now and remembered always.

African Training Trust May Influence World's Future

The announcement made yesterday of the establishment of a Thomson African Newspaper Training Trust Fund is of more than passing interest. The announcement stated that Mr. Roy Thomson of Thomson Newspapers established a trust fund to provide for training of African newspaper people in units of the Thomson organization in Canada and Great Britain. The training will cover all phases of the newspaper business and provide a background of the social and economic life of the countries concerned. In other words, it will provide African newspaper people with an insight into not only the operations of a newspaper but with the manner of living of the people in Canada and the United Kingdom.

Obviously, this is a step of some importance to the western nations. It is now becoming obvious that whether we like it or not, many of the future events in the world will be affected by Africa and African opinion. News men trained by and informed of western methods and ideals could do much toward guiding the new African nations to an appreciation of those ideals and plans.

The establishment of the trust fund is the more significant when linked with the announcement of a week ago that the Thomson organization had acquired a fifty per cent interest in the Amalgamated Press of Nigeria and would operate a daily and a Sunday paper there. The Thomson organization will supply the mechanical and editorial know-how but the paper will be operated by Nigerians. Any profits from the paper will be left in Nigeria for further development there.

The two announcements taken together point to one interesting fact. The entry into Africa of the Thomson company is not an ordinary business move with behind it the desire to make a profit. Its purpose apparently is of another type entirely. Nigeria is one of the new African nations; it is naturally desired that it should stay linked to the Commonwealth and the western world. A strong, well edited and efficiently operated newspaper could do much to guide the country into the western group. Especially if operated by men trained in Britain and Canada.

While the scheme has been born in Nigeria, it is not unlikely that it will be expanded to cover other African nations formerly British colonies. This would be particularly true of the training fund plan which could be expanded as circumstance require.

It is interesting to note that it is a Canadian publisher who has taken this important and unusual step toward Commonwealth consolidation. Canada has reason to be proud of the leadership given by one of her sons in this regard. The selfishness and altruism of the project may well serve as a guide for others who believe that Commonwealth relations and western ideals are worth preserving. The Thomson African Training Trust, announced yesterday, may play an important role in the future political and economic development of Africa—and the world.

CARAVAN 97 TO SEE DAM IN MAKING

Members of Caravan 97 will have an opportunity to observe a huge dam under construction when the motorcade stops at Rocky Reach Dam, seven miles north of Wenatchee, Washington, on the Columbia River. Construction of this $273 million hydro-electric project was begun in 1956, and is scheduled for initial operation in July, 1961. It will have an installed capacity of 775,000 kw. Caravan 97, which will begin at Bend, Oregon, on next Sunday, will travel Highway 97 north to Dawson Creek, B.C., the terminal point of the tour. It is scheduled to stop at Rocky Reach Dam on Sept. 6.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SHOPPING HOURS
The Editor,
Kelowna Daily Courier
Dear Sir:

Would you be so kind as to publish in your letter column the enclosed copy of a letter to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Kelowna:

The Mayor and Aldermen, City of Kelowna, Gentlemen:
Please accept my thanks and congratulations on the action you are taking to close the shopping hours in the City of Kelowna. This matter has been a sore point with the citizens for a considerable time and the sooner closing is left to the individual store to decide the better it will be for all concerned.

As one merchant says leave us alone, sure they have been left alone too long, but the time has come for closed town idea to be broken up. Another merchant says that it is only three or four stores that are trouble-makers. How wrong can he be. Those few stores were the only ones that were trying to give the public a little consideration and a square deal, competition is the life of trade.

Could it be that they are afraid of this new competition coming into town. Thanks to our wide awake Mayor and aldermen our city will very soon be enlarged, competition will then be in the City proper, and it will no longer be taken for granted that those who cannot stand this natural competition will fall by the wayside which is as it should be. Again thanking you gentlemen.

Sincerely yours,
A. J. CHIDLEY

BIBLE BRIEF

So shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.—1 Thessalonians 4:17, 18.

If the prospects of being face to face with God forever is not a source of comfort, we need to get acquainted with Him.

Attempt Land Speed Record

Preparations are proceeding according to plan for the first British car in 13 years to make an attempt on the world's land speed record — the new Bluebird, with which Donald Campbell will challenge the existing record in September this year on the Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, U.S.A.

The attempt is described as an all-British effort, and 54 firms were involved in manufacturing everything from ball-bearings to the frame itself.

No British driver has attempted to break the land speed record since the late John Cobb took it to 394.196 m.p.h. in 1947. Campbell hopes to raise the speed record to over 400 m.p.h. The new Bluebird will be driven by a free turbine engine which will give it 4,250 shaft horsepower at 11,000 r.p.m. In order to obtain the best aerodynamic design, various models were given comprehensive wind tunnel tests, at the Imperial College of Science, London, Eng. The final design was based on the results achieved in these tests.

The wheelbase and track are 13 feet 6 inches and 5 feet 6 inches respectively, and overall body dimensions 30 feet long and 8 feet wide. The frame is of aluminium "honeycomb" sandwich, with four longitudinal members and four main cross members which form separate compartments for the driver, engine, transmission gearboxes, wheels, etc. These main members are supplemented by sheet aluminium bulkheads, diaphragms and skinning to form a very light rigid structure.

The car will be driven through all four 52 inch diameter tires, with the front pair providing the steering.

To stop the car in the short distance available, aerodynamic brakes in the rear of the car first slow the vehicle, and when it drops to a speed of 400 m.p.h. the four disc brakes can be brought into use.

The use of a gas turbine engine, taking in and exhausting large quantities of air, has increased the complexity of the design of the vehicle, both from structural and aerodynamic points of view.

This will be the first time Donald Campbell has attempted the world's land speed record. He was born on 23rd March, 1921, the only son of the late Sir Malcolm Campbell, M. B. E., who in 1932 created the record of 253.97, in 1933, 272.46, in 1935, 276.82 and again in 1935, 301.13. After being educated at Uppingham School he joined the R.C.A. as a pilot under training in 1939 and was invalided out in August 1940.

On the death of his father in 1948, Donald, then 27, and a partner in a business producing wood-working machine tools, decided to keep his father's work alive. This was born of an announcement from Henry Kaiser that he had built a boat to attack Sir Malcolm's pre-war water speed record of 141.74 m.p.h.

After several unsuccessful attempts and setbacks, including the foundering of the propeller-driven Bluebird by hitting submerged debris when a record was within his grasp, Donald decided to risk everything to build a new Bluebird using jet propulsion. The work matured on Ullswater on 23rd July, 1955, when he regained the world water speed record for Great Britain with a speed of 202.32 m.p.h. In September of the following year at Coniston Water he raised it to 225.63 m.p.h. and in 1957, at Coniston again, to 239.07 m.p.h. On 10th November, 1958, also at Coniston, he set a new record speed of 248.62 m.p.h., which lasted until 14th May, 1959, when, once again he broke his own record with a speed of 260.35 m.p.h. on the same lake.

The Bluebird was the first boat to take the record safely over 200 m.p.h. and also the first boat to use jet propulsion.

Russia-Wide Warning Issued: Watch Out for Foreign Spies!

MOSCOW (Reuters)—The call pitches on and off since the end to Soviet citizens to be on their guard against foreign spies. But with the shooting guard against foreign spies in down of the U.S. U-2 spy plane, their midst and the "disrupting" the call for vigilance now is being influence of bourgeois ideology made almost daily by some sections when they go abroad again is being sounded throughout the Soviet Union.

The code word of the campaign is "bitterness," the Russian word for vigilance. "Every year, thousands of foreign tourists, journalists, It has been waged at different students and sportsmen come to the Soviet Union. They are gladly met as guests and helped to get a correct impression of the Soviet Union and its people."

But, the newspaper added, Russians should not forget that imperialist intelligence organizations plant agents among tourists and trade delegations and carry out spy activities.

One newspaper said recently that a group of embassy officials travelling from Moscow by train were seen by train conductors trying secretly to photograph "objects" and make notes. The train conductors demanded to see the notes, it said, and found they contained information about military airports and bridges.

But so-called spies are not the only targets in the campaign. Newspapers are particularly incensed about citizens who give away secret information to their relatives, friends and even strangers.

Also under attack are "foolish people" who lose secret documents and speak "too freely" on the telephone.

Vigilance by Russians abroad also is emphasized. About 900,000 Soviet citizens visited "non-socialist" countries last year and more are expected to go this year.

NATO No Longer Useful, Claims U.K. Magazine

LONDON (CP)—A serious four or five years of NATO's British magazine says NATO has troubled decade of existence, is served its purpose and should be responsible at least in part for the recent reports, denied in the magazine, that the "disrupting" the call for vigilance now is being influence of bourgeois ideology made almost daily by some sections when they go abroad again is being sounded throughout the Soviet Union.

"NATO today has become a meaningless symbol," says the magazine. "It is time it was decently interred."

The comment comes in an article by Col. Patrick Fort in London that Canada, seeking Phillips, a prominent member of ways of streamlining her defence the Liberal party who was a effort, is considering the possibility of reducing her military forces in Europe.

Such speculation, possibly generated by statements about the desirability of economies made since the end of military strength in Ottawa earlier this month by is bad—"the weakness of NATO" Defence Minister Pearson, seems to be a reproach to the West even if it is not a danger.

The two statements, "probably made, even by way of the most direct with some reluctance, reflect a growing uneasiness about the future of the 15-nation alliance. This sense of crisis, almost duction in Canadian strength in a chronic complaint in the last Europe

Evening Wedding Ceremony At First Lutheran Church

The First Lutheran Church of Kelowna was beautifully decorated with altar vases of cream and yellow and mauve gladioli on August 4 at 7.30 p.m. for the wedding of Lynette Gloria Jones, daughter of Pastor and Mrs. Lyman Jones, of Kelowna and Pastor Herbert Edmund Fruson of Dawson Creek, B.C. second son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edmund Fruson of Rutland.

The bride's father Pastor Jones officiated, and the bride's young brother Lorne Jones and William Like sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a duet when the bride and groom reached the altar, and "O Perfect Love" immediately after the ceremony. During the signing of the register the congregation sang "Oh Blessed Home."

The bride was given in marriage by her father who led the procession to the altar. She was lovely in a full length gown, with layers of net over a hooped skirt of nylon tulle, the top skirt of which fell in graduated scalloped tiers of net edged with Chantilly lace. The lace bodice was fitted with long lily point sleeves and a small lace collar inset in the sweetheart neckline. Her long filmy net veil edged with Chantilly lace held in place by a band of seed pearls and other of pearls and sequins, and she carried a white leather Bible topped with a deep mauve orchid set with stephanotis and lily of the valley from which white satin streamers cascaded.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister Mrs. Irvin Roesler of Compeer, Alta., and the brides-matrons were Mrs. Arthur Fruson of Cactus Lake, Sask. They were dressed alike in short full skirted dresses of mauve tulle nylon over crinolines, with fitted bodices and pleated mauve cummerbunds. Their headresses were white velvet bands trimmed with pleated nylon and velvet flowers, and they carried crescent shaped bouquets of tinted yellow carnations tied with mauve iridescent ribbons. The bride's young flower girl was Miss Lorie Lee Jones, sister of the bride, who wore a yellow lace frock, the full skirt of which fell in scalloped tiers over a hooped underskirt. On her hair she wore a double band of yellow centered daisies, and she carried a white basket of yellow and mauve flowers mixed with lily of the valley.

The best man was the groom's brother Mr. William Fruson of Cactus Lake, Sask. The ushers were Mr. Luther Jones, of Kelowna the bride's eldest brother, and Mr. Arthur Fruson of Cactus Lake, Sask. the groom's youngest brother.

PASTOR AND MRS. HERBERT EDMUND FRUSON

A reception was held for about one hundred and fifty guests at the Canadian Legion Banquet Hall, which was decorated in a cream, yellow and mauve theme, with streamers from the bride's table forming a bower for the bride. The bride's table was decorated with yellow tulle on a hand crocheted cloth. The three tiered wedding cake baked by the bride, and decorated by Mr. Alfred Rut, was topped with a bouquet of miniature mauve orchids and stephanotis, with cascading white satin ribbon set in a crystal vase.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the groom's brother Mr. William Fruson, and was responded to by the groom. Toastmasters were the Rev. A. Schwab and the Reverend L. Jones, and in charge of the Bride's Book and Guest List was Miss Lois Liske of Kelowna. Telegrams were received from Dawson Creek, B.C., Woodstock, Ontario; Saskatoon, Sask.; and Lusseland, Sask. The mother of the bride received in a slate blue nylon mesh afternoon dress with a pink hat and gloves, and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a light blue silk print with white hat and accessories, and she wore a corsage of white carnations. In charge of the reception was Mrs. Fred Bieller, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Ochs, Mrs. J. Sauer, Mrs. W. Oldhaver, Mrs. Heinz Zdralek, and Mrs. Hans Zdralek; and the servers were the Misses a Jeannette Gabel, udy Wendermold, Mary Ann Hentling, Nedda Grierson, Mary Gabel, Wilma Gohorn and Mrs. Larene Imhorn.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Roesler and son Murray, from Compeer, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. William Fruson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fruson, Mrs. E. Fruson and children of Cactus Lake, Sask.; Mrs. E. Lange, the Misses Irene and Linda Lange, and Mr. Arthur Lange from Claresholm, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Rapp of Taber, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. G. Derwig, Calgary, Alta.; Mr. W. Matthews of Fort Saint John, B.C.; Miss Ruth Ulmer, Dawson Creek; Mr. and Mrs. J. Freer, Revelstoke; Mr. and Mrs. Len Ochs, Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schramm, Vernon; Miss Kathy Kukkola, Kamloops; The Rev. and Mrs. A. Schwab, of Seattle, Wash. and the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Beiderwieden, Penticton.

For their honeymoon to Okanagan points by car the bride changed to a white linen suit with pink hat and accessories, and a corsage of deep mauve orchids. Pastor and Mrs. Fruson will reside at Dawson Creek, B.C. where the groom is pastor of Saint Paul's Lutheran Church.

MINK REMAINS GIRL'S BEST FRIEND

Some of the far-out stylists claim the mink stole is not a "must" any more and that many smart women tend to disdain it these days. Well, in this wonderful land where luxuries of all sorts are not confined to the upper crust, the mink stole is not a status symbol but an ever-so-useful and handy accessory, both pretty and practical. Of course mink stole fashions do change and here is the latest version. Fashioned of Autumn Haze mink, it has handy pockets and a very new wide notched collar.

HITHER AND YON

Miss Gail Fillmore is leaving on Monday for Switzerland where she will attend the Neuchatel Junior College. This college takes eighty Canadian girls of high academic standing each year. Miss Fillmore will fly to Montreal next Wednesday from Vancouver where she will meet the group and sail with them on the S.S. Avernion. On their way to Switzerland the girls will spend a week in London. Miss Fillmore plans to be away a year.

On Tuesday, last, a game of "Swiss golf" was organized by Miss Nancy Gale in honor of Miss Gail Fillmore and her mother Mrs. D. C. Fillmore. The game was followed by a delightful luncheon at the clubhouse, at which prizes were presented. By a happy coincidence, the first prize went to Gail, who is shortly to leave for school at Neuchatel, Switzerland. Runner up was Mrs. R. J. Stewart. It was undoubtedly Gail's day for she also carried off the prize for "Most Pars" given by Mrs. Stewart, for "Hidden Hole," given by Mrs. A. S. Underhill, and for the "Long Drive" given by Miss Frances Tregold. All those present wished Gail a happy year and a safe return.

Also in honor of Miss Fillmore was a tea given by Mrs. J. C. Peacock, and a luncheon of Miss Fillmore's young friends given by Miss Barbara Gaddes, as well as a number of small informal farewell parties.

Mrs. E. J. Cameron who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Day, for the past few weeks will be returning to her home in Vancouver next week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gorbett are leaving Kelowna shortly. They are going first to Toronto where they will visit relatives, and later they will settle permanently in South-ern Ontario.

Mrs. W. A. Cairns and small daughters Susie, Debbie and Penny are guests of Mrs. Cairns' parents Mr. and Mrs. H. McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Clark have returned from a motor trip to Windermere and Waterton Lakes. They drove back to Kelowna through Montana, Idaho and Washington.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tony Schmidt, Bertram St. for the next few weeks are their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Don Fink, and their sons Michael and Donald, who arrived recently from Seattle.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Pipke are Miss Judy Nuchezmyer and Miss Judy Harris of Golden B.C.

Residents living along Evan's Road and Greenhowe Road who petitioned for road improvements are now happy that Dept. of Highway's crews have completed laying and rolling a new road mix surface.

Latest Dance Steps Are a Must Today

It is time to begin thinking about the fall season, and one of our activities that gathers momentum in the fall and winter months is ballroom dancing. Mrs. Jean Vipond, who has just returned from a dancing convention at Chico Hot Springs, Montana is ready to start her fall classes in the latest dances. This year she will emphasize ballroom dancing, and will hold classes for all age groups, pre-teen, teenagers and adults. She is particularly interested in starting out the grade six children, who she says are not too young but just the right age to learn. Posture and etiquette are stressed in all classes, and young people find that dancing improves their self confidence and grace, as well as being a great deal of fun.

The size of each class is limited and many of the classes turn into bi-weekly dancing clubs, after the basic steps are learned. Groups of friends may form their own small classes and clubs under Mrs. Vipond's supervision, so if you have a husband or friend with two left feet who spoils your dancing evenings for you, let Mrs. Vipond turn him into the partner you have been dreaming of and improve your own dancing at the same time by learning the latest steps with him.

Mrs. Vipond herself has trained in Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Vancouver and Montreal, and we are lucky to have her among us to keep us up to date. The days of being walked down the room and turned around once at the corners are gone, and ballroom dancing has become an art again. As well as ballroom dancing Mrs. Vipond will hold classes in Baton, and courses in slenderizing.

BETTER HEALTH SERVICE FOR ALL ACCORDING TO NEED, NOT INCOME!

In this age of wonder drugs, of great advances in the conquest of sickness and disease, nobody should go without proper medical attention just because they cannot afford it... but thousands do! Others go into debt to pay for essentially medical services. This is a blemish on our society, an added anxiety we don't have to bear... we CAN have a truly comprehensive medical and hospital insurance plan that brings the benefits of modern medicine to everybody, regardless of their means. This plan is a major plank in the CCF platform.

ONLY THE CCF WILL BRING COMPLETE MEDICAL PROTECTION!

Executive Discards Career To Enter Church Ministry

POINT EDWARD, Ont. (CP)—A conversation over a cup of afternoon tea prompted Rev. Denton Massey, former business executive, Bible class leader, and member of Parliament, to enter the Anglican ministry at 50.

To a man who once travelled 100,000 miles a year around the world, the decision meant a complete change of pace. Since May he has been deacon in charge of a small parish in this Sarnia suburb.

The idea of abandoning a highly successful business career for the religious world took root following a chat last year with Rt. Rev. George N. Luxton, Anglican bishop of Huron, in London, Ont. This April he entered Seager Hall, where older men study for the Anglican ministry, and on May 26 was ordained at St. Paul's Church, Woodstock.

Mr. Massey, first cousin to former governor-general Vincent Massey and actor Raymond Massey, was raised a Methodist. He became an Anglican in 1943 while serving in England as a group captain in the RCAF.

MP THREE YEARS
But 16 years as a Bible class teacher and three terms in Parliament perhaps specially fitted him for preaching to a church congregation.

"Mentally," he says, "I was never out of the pulpit."
Today he puts the same thoroughness and research into preparation of his sermons as into his former executive posts. Sermons are drafted three or four times.

On Saturday evenings Mr. Massey goes alone into the 23-pew St. Paul's church in this community of 2,800. He stands in the sanctuary, reads through the entire service, and delivers the sermon to the silent church.

BUSINESS LEADER
Born in Toronto July 20, 1900, Mr. Massey is a graduate engineer. He was educated at St. Andrew's College, the University of Toronto, Yale University, and

SETTLES WITH LAW
VANCOUVER (CP)—Stan Kress, who rented parking space to nine cars near the Pacific National Exhibition grounds here Friday, appeared in court with nine parking tickets. The cars were illegally parked on a city boulevard. Court officials settled for $4.50 for all the tickets—the price Kress had collected from the drivers.

ORGAN RECITAL
Music lovers will have the opportunity of hearing an organ recital on September 4 after even-song in St. Michael and All Angels' Church.

Charles Palmer of the Westminster Choir School in London, England, will be in Kelowna over the weekend and has kindly agreed to provide this recital at approximately 8:30 p.m.

His chief works will be Prelude and Fugue in E Flat major by Bach, and Choral in A Minor by Franck.

Mr. Palmer is visiting in Victoria and is coming up specially to fulfil this longstanding engagement.

Services on Sunday morning next at St. Michael and All Angels' Church will be conducted by the Right Reverend A. H. Sovereign of Vernon, formerly Bishop of Athabasca.

The Reverend G. M. Rumsey, Assistant Priest of the Vernon Parish, will conduct Evensong.

He had two business careers, before and after the Second World War. From 1924 to 1932 he was associated with Massey-Harris agricultural machinery company, and from 1932 to 1934 was vice-president of Philip Massey and Company, advertising agents.

After the Second World War he operated automobile agencies and became head of the American subsidiary of a British automotive manufacturer. He also sold Canada's first privately-owned nuclear reactor to McMaster University in Hamilton.

Mr. Massey married Esther Jerards of New Haven, Conn., in 1922. A son Walter is an actor, and one of their two daughters is married to a son of L. H. H. Brethaupt of Kitchener, a former lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

So many were turned away for lack of seats that another service was arranged.

During the depression he became so well known as a spokesman for youth that in 1935 he contested and won the Toronto Greenwood riding for the Conservatives. He held the parliamentary seat for 14 years until he retired on medical advice.

LIKE OKANAGAN

Rev. Elliott H. Birdsall, minister of Kelowna's First United Church, his wife and daughter, Helen, report finding life in the Orchard City very much to their liking. They have been in residence at the manse on

Lawrence Ave. for just over a month. Helen, 16, will be entering grade 11 at Kelowna High School next month. An elder daughter has recently completed training at Vancouver General Hospital and is due for two weeks vacation here before returning to UBC to complete her B. Sc. course. Rev. and Mrs. Birdsall's son, David, is also attending UBC, where he is taking engineering.

But wherever it shines... there are shadows. Wherever there are golden opportunities there are also sombre tragedies. Some fail to grasp their blessings.

Ours is a nation which guarantees to every child the opportunity for religious training. Yet ours is a nation which smarts under the scourge of a moral disease—juvenile delinquency.

In blessing you with a son or daughter, God has entrusted to you a precious soul. You are required by law to give your child a secular education. But, despite the scourge of delinquency, a free nation must leave to your conscience the question of your child's moral and religious education.

God has blessed America. With a nearby Church ready and eager to provide Christian training for your child, and religious foundation for your family's life—the Sun shines bright. But there are shadows. You must decide!

LEADS FISH DERBY

Betty Watson, daughter of Orval Watson of 507 Oxford Avenue, shows off a 10-pound, 1-ounce Kamloops trout her dad caught in Okanagan Lake recently. Watson's trout leads the annual Fish and Game Club's derby thus far. The fish measuring 30 inches in length, was caught in the vicinity of Paul's tomb, near Knox Mountain.

Gone Fishing

THE COOLER WEATHER OF THE PAST WEEK is bringing on some excellent late-summer fishing on Lake Okanagan and in the district's mountain lakes.

The much cooler air at the higher levels has necessitated warmer clothing and those going warmly-dressed and who plan on staying with the fishing are getting excellent catches.

With a continuation in the weather the upper lakes will be fished for at least another month. Late fall fishing occurs when the largest fish of the season are taken, and when the fish are always in good condition.

The next big rush of anglers heading for the fishing spots will be the Labor Day weekend.

OKANAGAN LAKE HAS BEEN IMPROVING with some fairly nice catches reported, especially catches of Kokanee. This I would judge to be one of the best years on record for Kokanee fishing.

The largest trout reported this week from the Okanagan was brought in by Dr. Ted Hackie and it, a five-pounder.

The largest Kokanee of the season are being taken now and no doubt in the near future the first runs will be up Mission Creek.

A report from Bob Chapman of Trepanier Bay states fishing has been revived in that area with some good catches coming in. He also reports several nice trout being taken on the Golf Tee and Tom Mac spoons, and on surface lines with about two ounces of lead.

Beaver Lake reports indicate fishing is improving all the time especially with the fly. Keith Humphrey of Kelowna and party, picked up a dozen or so—mostly on the Green Sedge fly.

Echo Lake near Beaver Lake is really improving with some very nice catches ranging up to four pounds. Jack Ritch and Harold Miller both made several catches there.

There is plenty of accommodation at the lake but remember to take some warm clothing in case the sun stays hidden.

POSTILL LAKE REPORTS FISHING has been very good with many limit and near-limit catches taken from all lakes in the area. Fly fishing with the Grizzly King and Green Sedge have accounted for the greatest catches. Woody Wristen and party of six from Omak, Wash., report limit catches from Postill with trout up to 16 inches.

Carlton Otto of Melton-Freewater, Ore., and party took their limits from South Lake with fish up to two and one-half pounds. Mr. Pearkes of Seattle and wife took a beautiful catch from Twin Lakes with fish up to three pounds in weight. J. Mikok and party of three from Seattle took limit catches from Heron Lake—the fish ranging from 10 to 16 inches.

The Silver and Red fluorescent Flatfish are also accounting for good catches. Local angler Paddy Acland report good fishing at Twin Lake with a limit of two pounds taken. He reports good dry fishing during the day.

Dee Lake resort reports the weather is cooler with fishing improving. Many are taking good catches on the chain using Carey flies, Dick Nite wobblers and silver, gold, yellow and grey F4 Flatfish.

ONE PARTY CAUGHT TROUT UP TO four and one-half pounds at Ruth Lake and another party had a good catch at First Fly Lake—the largest weighing four pounds.

Dr. Paso and son of Ellensburg, Wash., along with a friend landed 36 nice trout at Min Lake on Wednesday. Plenty of cabins and boats are available for next week at the Dee Resort.

Oyama Lake is producing plenty of fish, mostly of the one-pound size. However, a few around five pounds have been taken this past week. Grizzly king fly and the F4 silver flatfish have been good there also.

A few of the local stream anglers are fishing Shuswap River for the spring salmon. This is an excellent sport once you know the way to fish the river.

Hidden Lake at Enderby has been good also and so has Spanish Lake at Falkland.

Kelowna Aces Must Take Both Fixtures Sunday

IRENE MACDONALD PLACES 3RD IN OLYMPIC SEMI-FINAL ROUND

ROME (CP) — Irene MacDonald of Kelowna, B.C., wound up in third place with 91.23 points in the semi-finals of the women's Olympic three-metre springboard diving competition. Ingrid Kramer of Germany compiled a total of 98.38 points to lead the eight qualifiers into the championship round. Russia's Ninel Krutova was a surprising second with 93.19.

The Canadian girl had finished ninth in Friday's preliminary round to qualify with 15 others for the semi-finals. A telegram of congratulations to Miss MacDonald is now being prepared at Canadian Pacific Telegraph office. Persons wishing to add their name are asked to call in at the CP office.

Williams Needs One More RBI To Tie Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—The next run Ted Williams drives home will push the Boston Red Sox slugger into a tie with Hall of Famer Al Simmons for fifth place among the all-time runs batted-in leaders of the major leagues.

Including the 59 runs he knocked in this year, Williams has driven in 1,828 since he joined the Red Sox in 1939. Ted doesn't figure to climb any higher than fifth because the Big Four in the RBI department—Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Ty Cobb and Jimmy Foxx—all are over the 1,900 mark. Ruth's 2,209 is tops.

Another milestone, Foxx's runs, appears to be out of Williams' reach—unless he reconsiders and decides to play another year.

Williams, with 24 homers this season, owns a career total of 516.

Among the currently active performers, Williams trails Stan Musial in every lifetime offensive department except home runs and runs batted in.

The Bostonian tops Musial by exactly 100 RBI and 92 home runs.

Through games of Thursday, Aug. 25, Musial ranks second to Ruth, among the all-time greats in long hits (1,268), third in total bases (5,572), and in doubles (674); fifth in hits (3,278); sixth in home runs (424); and seventh in runs (1,801) and runs batted in (1,726).

Northern Boys Take Lacrosse Playoffs

ARMSTRONG, B.C. (CP) — Armstrong Shamrocks took a 9-5 decision over Vernon Vikings Friday night before 550 fans to win the best-of-three Interior Senior B lacrosse playoffs 2-1.

The Shamrocks, provincial finalists for the last four seasons, once again earned the right to contest the B.C. title. They will open a two-game total-goal series with Vancouver Calder Bluebirds here Sept. 2.

Allan Andrews, George Wynn and Ed Horwath each netted two for winners, while Ken Watt, Frank Pouncy and Skip McCallan added singles.

Howie Carter grabbed a pair for Vernon with Normie Ogawa, Doug Greenough and Bob Shumay added the others.

Vernon held a 1-0 lead after the quarter and the teams were tied 2-2 at halftime. Armstrong moved out to a 7-4 lead at the three-quarter mark and outscored the visitors 2-1 in the final quarter.

"Sarcastic" Remarks Result in Fracas

By CHARLES E. GIORDANO
(Courier Sports Editor)
Fight with the bull and you get the horns.

Play with fire and you get burnt.

Cast unnecessary sarcasm at former Kelowna Packers Coach Jack O'Reilly and the effect is similar to the two above, only it's a fist.

The blow and its effect, whether called for or not, were left Thursday night at a hot, hectic meeting of the Penticon Vees hockey club.

In fact so effective was it that the Peach City club now sits with no executive and a two-man leadership as the OSHL season rapidly nears its start.

HASLE CAPS CLASH
Thursday night's hassle put the cap on a two-month personality clash involving O'Reilly and executive member Ed Williams.

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing the raising of funds and obtaining of new players.

It started out normally with mild talk but took very little time in becoming a bitter discussion, resulting in a fracas between O'Reilly and Williams.

O'Reilly said he had previously overlooked "many uncalculated remarks" directed to him by Williams during the course of the meeting.

He said Williams had started in on Manager Gerry Dent by making smart remarks, "filled with sarcasm."

The Vees new coach said he and Dent were enquiring as to why the team's fund-raising campaign had slowed down when Williams made his move by asking O'Reilly "to put his cards on the table."

CARDS ON TABLE
This O'Reilly did by saying "I took the job last spring on the understanding that reasonable employment would be obtained for players and that $5,000, with no strings attached, would be available to build the club."

He then asked Williams why he had not contacted Jim Shirley, a goaltender O'Reilly had asked him to consult earlier in the summer.

O'Reilly said Williams had agreed to contacting Shirley but that "nothing had been done" up to now.

Williams reply was: "I've heard all that baloney before," and with the next few seconds was picking himself off the floor and at the same time tendering his resignation as a director of the Vees club.

Immediately following the trend of Williams were other executive members W. Robbie Roberts and Bill McKinnon.

DRAW STATEMENT
Two other members, President Roy Coleman and Secretary Roy Pickering stayed behind with O'Reilly and Dent and assisted in drawing up a statement of the affair, up to and including the fracas.

This statement, signed by the three executive members and O'Reilly was handed over to the Penticon newspaper Thursday night for publication.

However Friday morning Coleman and Pickering changed their minds, for reasons unknown, and withdrew from the executive.

The Penticon club raised $1,700 in cash and had $1,000 in pledges in their campaign. Of this total, $1,000 is being held by the BCHA for the transfer of four players to the Vees.

The four players are Buddy Evans, Walt Trentini, Andy McCallum and Warren Hicks. There was also talk of negotiations between the Vees and Billy Hyrcuk, former coach of the Kamloops Chiefs.

O'Reilly said today that the team now requires another $1,400 to give Penticon a worthy club.

"What we need now is the support of enthusiastic, hockey-minded people in Penticon to put the club on the ice."

MEETING AUGUST 31
A meeting has been called for August 31 at which time all concerned will officially turn in their resignations and a new executive elected.

O'Reilly pointed out that all of the money so far raised and any more coming in will go to the building of the team only and not to himself.

Fate of the Penticon Vees, one-time world champs, leans strongly on the meeting Aug. 31 in Penticon.

At halftime it was 14-14. The 32-year-old Rote threw passes for all four of his club's touchdowns and each carried at least one-quarter of the field. The payoff tosses gave him a total of 12 for the campaign, all of Toronto's touchdown scoring.

Mann finished off two of them on plays that went for 64 and 54 yards. One was a 53-yard play with Canadian Ed Oehlenn and the other a grab by Dick Shatto good for 31 yards.

VETERAN OF NFL
A veteran of 12 seasons in the National Football League, Rote is a first-year man with Toronto. Before a hometown crowd last week he pitched five touchdown passes against the Als in a 36-14 win.

Mann registered his game-deciding single Friday night at 12:56 of the final quarter. He nudged from Montreal's 40-yard line, drove the ball into the end zone and it rolled out of bounds before a play could be made.

Cookie Gilchrist added the extra-point to the four Toronto touchdowns.

For the Alouettes George Dixon counted three touchdowns. He scooted 43 yards for one, took a seven-yard end zone pass and bulldozed over from three yards out. Dixon, in the play preceding his plunge, romped 70 yards before he was hauled down by Toronto's Jim Rountree.

Quarterback Sam Etcheberry looked up with Hal Patterson on a 27-yard play for Montreal's other touchdown. He also booted a single. Homebred Bill Bewley made good on three of the conversion attempts but he was wide on one and it proved to be a potential tying point.

Labs, Carlings To Make Third Try Tonight

Tonight for the third time this week Kelowna Labatts and Vernon Carlings will attempt to play baseball.

Weather permitting the two squads will take to Elks stadium at 8 o'clock for the second game of the best-of-three "A" semi-final series.

Both previous games were rained out but it is expected the weatherman will allow the fixture to go ahead tonight.

A loss tonight for the Labs would spell the end of the season for the Orchard City boys.

Carlings at present hold a one-game lead in the Okanagan Mainline Baseball league series. They downed the Kelowna team 9-7 last Sunday in Vernon.

With this in mind tonight's contest should be a hot one, both for spectator and player.

Spectre Of Obsolescence Haunts Aircraft Industry

MONTREAL (CP)—The spectre of obsolescence haunts the fast-developing aircraft industry and is diversifying their output as a solution.

With airplanes constantly changing in speed and range, a manufacturer may spend millions of dollars developing a new aircraft only to find it may be out-of-date before production.

Montreal's Canadair Limited, while having as much success as any other firm in the highly-competitive field of airplane manufacture, is no stranger to other lines of production.

RAMBLING PLANT
An atomic research reactor was built at the rambling 125-acre Canadair plant and airfield in suburban St. Laurent in 1955. Canadair also experimented with development of a military tracked vehicle.

The firm now has a contract to engineer, test and produce metal curtain walls for the 34-storey Canadian Industries Limited building being erected on Dorchester Avenue here.

Canadair is also working on an electronic mail sorter for the postal department. A more bizarre project for the company's engineers is experiment with the design of a girdle-like device to ease childbirth.

AIRCRAFT FIRST
Design and production of aircraft however remains the principle effort. Its fast and powerful CL-44 cargo plane has proved attractive to both military and commercial buyers. Also ready for production are the Canadair 540, a twin-engine aircraft that

Motorboat Craze Hits Manitoba In A Big Way

WINNIPEG (CP) — A sudden surge of public interest in motorboats has brought smiles to the faces of Manitoba suppliers of marine equipment. But the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, in charge of water safety patrols, is not happy.

Provincial officials recently issued boat licence No. 10,000, meaning that one in about 85 Manitobans is the registered owner of a boat powered by a 10-horsepower, or bigger, motor. Four years ago, the ratio was one licence for each 2,000 inhabitants.

"We have not been able to keep up with all the inquiries that are pouring in," said E. E. Parks, a marine equipment dealer. "Boating has pyramided fantastically during the last five years."

But Cpl. W. S. Greenlay, head of the RCMP water safety patrol in Manitoba, says "boating has caught on too fast for the public's good."

MANY COMPLAINTS
Cpl. Greenlay's pessimism stems from careless handling of the small craft. "I have received as many as 135 calls in one day charging infractions of the Small Vessels Act," he said.

Cpl. Greenlay built his own 21-foot cabin cruiser, one of two used by the RCMP to patrol Manitoba's 27,000 square miles of lakes. The patrol is still in its infancy, and it won't be long before more help is needed, he said.

"We could see the public becoming interested in boating, but no one could have predicted the tremendous growth of the sport," he declared.

Something will have to be done soon to speed up a program of adequate safety patrols.

NEED SUPERVISION
The RCMP official suggests that individual municipalities located on lakes and rivers may take heed of the growing need for supervision of the boating enthusiasts, and institute their own

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

by ROGER C. WHITMAN

RE-NEWING BRASS
QUESTION: Many years ago I painted a brass bed with white paint. Now that brass seems to be popular again, I am wondering if I can remove the paint with regular paint remover, and what to use to bring the lustre back into the brass, or how to polish it.

ANSWER: The paint can be removed with regular paint remover, following label instructions carefully.

Many excellent brass cleaning and polishing preparations are now available at most housewares and hardware dealers; follow manufacturer's directions. Or clean with a paste made of flour added to vinegar in which a much salt as possible has been dissolved, then rinse with clear water.

To retard tarnishing, after cleaning and polishing, wipe with benzene to remove any trace of grease or wax and apply coat of spraying clear lacquer made especially for this purpose; available at paint stores.

BASEMENT WALLS
QUESTION: We want to finish off our basement into a playroom for our children during bad weather. Is there any kind of coating we can apply to the concrete walls that would damp-proof them and still be washable?

ANSWER: A cement base paint that comes in powder form and is mixed with water can be used. It will damp-proof the walls. When the paint has hardened and dried, it can be cleaned by scrubbing with a strong cleaning solution. However, be sure to first wet the surfaces with clear water before scrubbing.

SHOE TREND
Finer heels and finer toes are predicted as the latest style in women's shoes.

Must Laundry Be In Basement?

Hey, look! Somebody got around to being logical about the placement of utilities.

Must we be hampered by tradition? Bedroom linen, bathroom linen, and the clothes that are changed in that area of the house make up the great bulk of the laundry, with the kitchen contributing by and large, much less. So why not have the facilities in a hall near the bedrooms, or in the bathroom itself?

Never again will you walk that long, long trail from the bedroom through the hall through the kitchen and down the stairs to the washing machine, totting the while an increasing accumulation of dowdy duds.

All you do is pop out of the bedroom door, slide back the bamboo, and push a button. A finger-flexing figure of fluttering femininity, that's you.

If you have one of these cavernous old bathrooms, why not cut its size and modernize it at the same time with that handsome fir plywood cabinet with the fold back doors? Use a cheerful colour in easy-to-clean enamel.

The exact size and shape of a cabinet for your home isn't the sort of thing you can find on a standard plan, so visit your local lumber dealer and he'll work it out for you in jig time.

When the job is done, it will be a treat to have the machines safely tucked out of sight. To coin a cliché - out of sight, out of mind - and that's where that job should be as often as possible. Because, it follows as the night the day that after the washing comes the ironing. Follow?

WANT TO ADVANCE IN A WORTHWHILE CAREER?

You can — with Canada's forward-looking Navy! The Navy is being equipped with "ships of the future" — the most modern destroyer-escorts in the world. The Navy needs men — to train as skilled technicians to man such ships.

Whether it is in electronics, armament, electrical, radar, engineering, or a number of other specialized trades, your training will be thorough — your work both interesting and rewarding.

The Navy offers permanent employment — good pay — real advancement opportunities — 30 days annual leave — plus medical and dental care — and excellent pension benefits.

Alaskan Has Children, Moose In His Charge

LENA POINT, Alaska (AP)—You would think the kids at the Minfield Children's Home would get tired of having moose for breakfast every day, not to mention lunch and dinner.

But, actually, the kids really go for the deal. The moose like the idea, too, all seven of them.

Lunch for the kids at the Minfield home, operated by the Gospel Missionary Union is a happy affair. Lunch for the moose is absolute pandemonium.

Sam Nickel, the chief counselor at the home, has children three to 15 years of age under his wing. The number varies. At last count there were 29. The children are native youngsters, orphaned or the products of broken homes.

Nickel likes kids. He also likes a moose. That's why, two years ago, during the start of an ambitious project to establish moose in southeastern Alaska, Territorial Sportsmen, Inc., and the U.S. fish and wildlife service came to Nickel for aid.

Would Nickel and his children provide daily care for 15 moose calves to be trapped in the Anchorage area and eventually released in the Berner's Bay area 45 miles northwest of Juneau, where studies had shown they would probably survive and multiply?

Nickel would, and moose pens were constructed in a large patch of brush and timber behind the home, which itself occupies a beautiful spot on a sheltered cove on Lena Point, just north of toward the home's main building.

Opening lead — jack of diamonds.

Bridge is not a game in which you are expected to perform the impossible, but occasionally there are hands where a player can execute feats that border on the miraculous.

For example, take this deal where South got to four hearts, which East, in indignation, doubled, and which South, likewise affronted, redoubled.

It does seem that declarer has to lose a diamond, a club, and three trump tricks, and even if he does avoid the loss of one of these tricks, he can hardly be expected to pick up still another. But bridge being the kind of game that it is, South managed the affair so well that he wound up losing only three tricks and made four hearts redoubled.

West led a diamond, covered by the Q-K-A. Declarer returned a diamond and West took it with the eight and shifted to a spade. South then started on a campaign to shorten himself in trumps, since he suspected that East had all four missing trumps.

He took the ace of spades and ruffed a spade. Then, after trumping a diamond in dummy, he ruffed another spade. He next cashed the A-K of clubs and ruffed dummy's last spade. This brought about the following position:

With four tricks still to be played, and having lost only one trick to date—a diamond—South had to produce two more tricks to make the contract.

This turned out to be a relatively simple matter when South led the eight of clubs. East was forced to ruff the club, even though West had played the jack, and had to return a trump.

It did not matter whether East led the ace or a lower heart. In either case, declarer was bound to make the queen and king—and the contract.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW

Sunday's horoscope promises a pleasant, enjoyable day. Especially favored: family get-togethers, social functions, entertainment along musical lines and romance; also outdoor activities. Avoid extravagance, however.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, while certain periods, notably in October, November and December, will be propitious where matters of the pocketbook are concerned, you cannot expect any dramatic upturn along these lines during 1960. Look to early 1961 for better aspects. You can gain, however, by mapping out a conservative program, preferably before this week is over by avoiding extravagance and speculation, and planning a solid foundation for the future. By following such a course, year's end should find your affairs on a generally stable basis.

Use good judgment in personal matters, too. Try to curb that innate hypercriticalism of yours so that you do not perpetuate crises in either business or family circles. Be especially careful in September and April. For the single, November and June will be excellent periods for marriage and, for all, late July and August will be stimulating for travel.

A child born on this day will be endowed with fine intuition and the determination needed to go after, and get, the things he wants, but he will be extremely materialistic.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW

Monday's aspects will be highly restrictive—especially during the morning hours. Avoid friction then, and be cautious—especially in written matters. During the P.M., most persons will be self-reliant, and can accomplish a great deal.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If Monday is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, while your opportunities may not be too obvious during the next year, if you keep looking for them and making use of those you ferret out, you may be surprised, in a matter of only nine or ten months, how well you will have fared. This does not mean that there will be a dramatic change in your status. But it does mean that a sound and conservative policy where both job and financial matters are concerned, will prove worthwhile in long-term results. Be especially alert to advantages during October, November and December.

Do not expect a highly stimulating personal life either. Except for November and June, when romance and marriage are under lucky stars, and in July and August, when travel is favored, you may find your personal activities fairly routine until September, when a new trend begins.

1961 starts off on a bright note in all spheres of your life. A child born on this day will be endowed with lofty ambitions and self-confidence but may be too susceptible to flattery.
